Opportunity to Build Statewide Capacity

Valerie Harmon, Melissa Parkerton, Director of Pathway to Accountability, Compassion and Transparency (PACT)

In their 2022 report on Early Discussion and Resolution, the Task Force on Resolution of Adverse HealthCare Incidents highlighted the need to build capacity in Oregon’s healthcare system to respond to and learn from medical harm.

Task Force on Resolution of Adverse Healthcare Incidents Recommendation to the OPSC Board of Directors (March 8, 2023 meeting)

- Consider including support for PACT in the 2023-2025 OPSC Biennial Budget to help build capacity in Oregon’s healthcare system for responding to and learning from medical harm in a way that prioritizes patient safety, transparency, and learning.
- Specifically, consider resources to support:
 - Interested organizations to participate in the PACT Community of Practice
 - A small cohort (5) of Oregon organizations to participate in the PACT Collaborative

Board Discussion

Valerie and Melissa led a discussion with board members about the goals of PACT, alignment with OPSC’s work, what support for PACT and facility participation would look like, next steps to get approval of this item in the 2023-25 biennial budget and begin planning for this work.
